Suspect Arrested in Theft of Safes

A 33-year-old Grayling man was arrested by the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. in connection with the theft of two safes Friday night from Millikin's Construction, of Grayling. Both safes and a portable cutting torch were recovered by the sheriff dept. in Lovells Township off of County Road 612 in a wooded area. Sheriff deputies said neither safe was entered and the suspect is believed to be the lone person involved in the theft. The safes were taken from Millikin's along North Down River Road between 5 p.m. Friday and 7 a.m. Saturday. A fork-lift was used to load the safes onto a pick-up truck. Sheriff deputies reported a forced entry into Millikin's.

City To Pick Up In Fall Clean-Up

City residents are requested to place all leaves, grass clippings, and other material raked up during fall clean-up in plastic bags and place them at curb side for pickup. We will be unable to pick up loose piles of such material until further notice. Residents are asked to place brush and tree limbs in neat piles at curb side and to call the city office to arrange pickup.

All leaves, brush and other clean-up debris should be kept in separate piles from bags of general household refuse to allow easier and more efficient pick-up.

Please call the City Office at 348-2131 for further information regarding disposal of specific items.

Coaches Needed for Jr. Pro

A couple more coaches are needed for Jr. Pro teams this year. A meeting for coaches will be held Sunday, October 27, 7 p.m. in the basement of the Chief Shoppenagons Hotel.

Third through sixth graders interested in playing Jr. Pro basketball this year must sign up Saturday, October 19 or 26, at R & H Sports from 10 a.m. to noon. Participation fees for boys and girls are $7. each. A parent must accompany the child to sign up on Saturday.

Two persons are also needed to help with organizing and operating the league. Call Mike Shearer for more information.

The North Arms Ranges located west of Lake Margrethe, south of Howe Rd, east of the gas pipeline and south of Portage Creek. Firing will begin at 8:00 AM 26 Oct 85 and cease at 5:00 PM 27 Oct 85.

The Range 40 Complex located north of County Rd 612, east of Guthrie Lake, south of Old State Rd 618 and west of County Rd F97 (Twin Bridge Rd). Firing will begin at 8:00 AM (Daily) 23 Oct 85 and cease at 5:00 PM (Daily) 30 Oct 85.

'Servin Irvin' Due For Public Plucking

The time fast approaches for the public plucking of Grayling's favorite turkey. The roast of Irving "Servin' Irvin" McIsaac has been scheduled for Sat., Oct. 26 at the K of C Hall. Tickets are going at the ridiculously low price of $8.50 per person, with proceeds going to benefit the Grayling Winter Sports Carnival. Cash bar is at 6:30, dinner at 7:30. At about 8:30 the turkey will be presented for public roasting by some of Grayling's most razor-tongued, rapier-witted toastmasters.

Don't miss the fun as Irving McIsaac is forced to endure the public humiliation that simple justice demands. Tickets are available at the Cornell Building, Mac's Drugs, Chamber of Commerce, R & H Sports, Bear's Country Inn, Rutter's Window and Door, Jansen's Sales and Service and other places where they haven't got anything better to do.

Township RR Siding Study Finished

A railroad siding and loading area to serve the forest products industry in Grayling Township will cost $273,900 to build, a recently completed study shows.

The railroad siding and loading area is being considered for the area just west of AJD Forest Products along Four Mile Road.

Arnold Stancil, Grayling Township Supervisor, said the township just received the study and hasn't done much with it. He said the township doesn't have the money to build the railroad project, but the township would probably start applying for grant money next year to fund the project.

The siding and loading area would benefit industry in Grayling Township and the surrounding area which does not ship enough goods to justify building their own railroad siding.

The loading area included in the plan would allow trucks to unload and load to and from railroad cars.

Grayling Township officials would like to develop an 80-acre industrial park around the railroad area.

The study shows the feasibility of building the project in the Four Mile Road site is excellent with good soils, topography, and location for a railroad line.

The land being considered is currently owned by the state and a land exchange would have to be worked out by the township and state.

Gas Tanker Crashes, Crews Avoid Explosion

By Jon Thompson

A tank carrying 10,500 gallons of liquefied gas came loose from a truck and rolled over near the Military Road entrance onto U.S. 27 South Thursday about 5:15 p.m.

The tank was ruptured slightly when it crashed, said Beaver Creek Fire Chief Ed Holcamp, but only some vapors escaped. None of the liquefied gas spilled, he said.

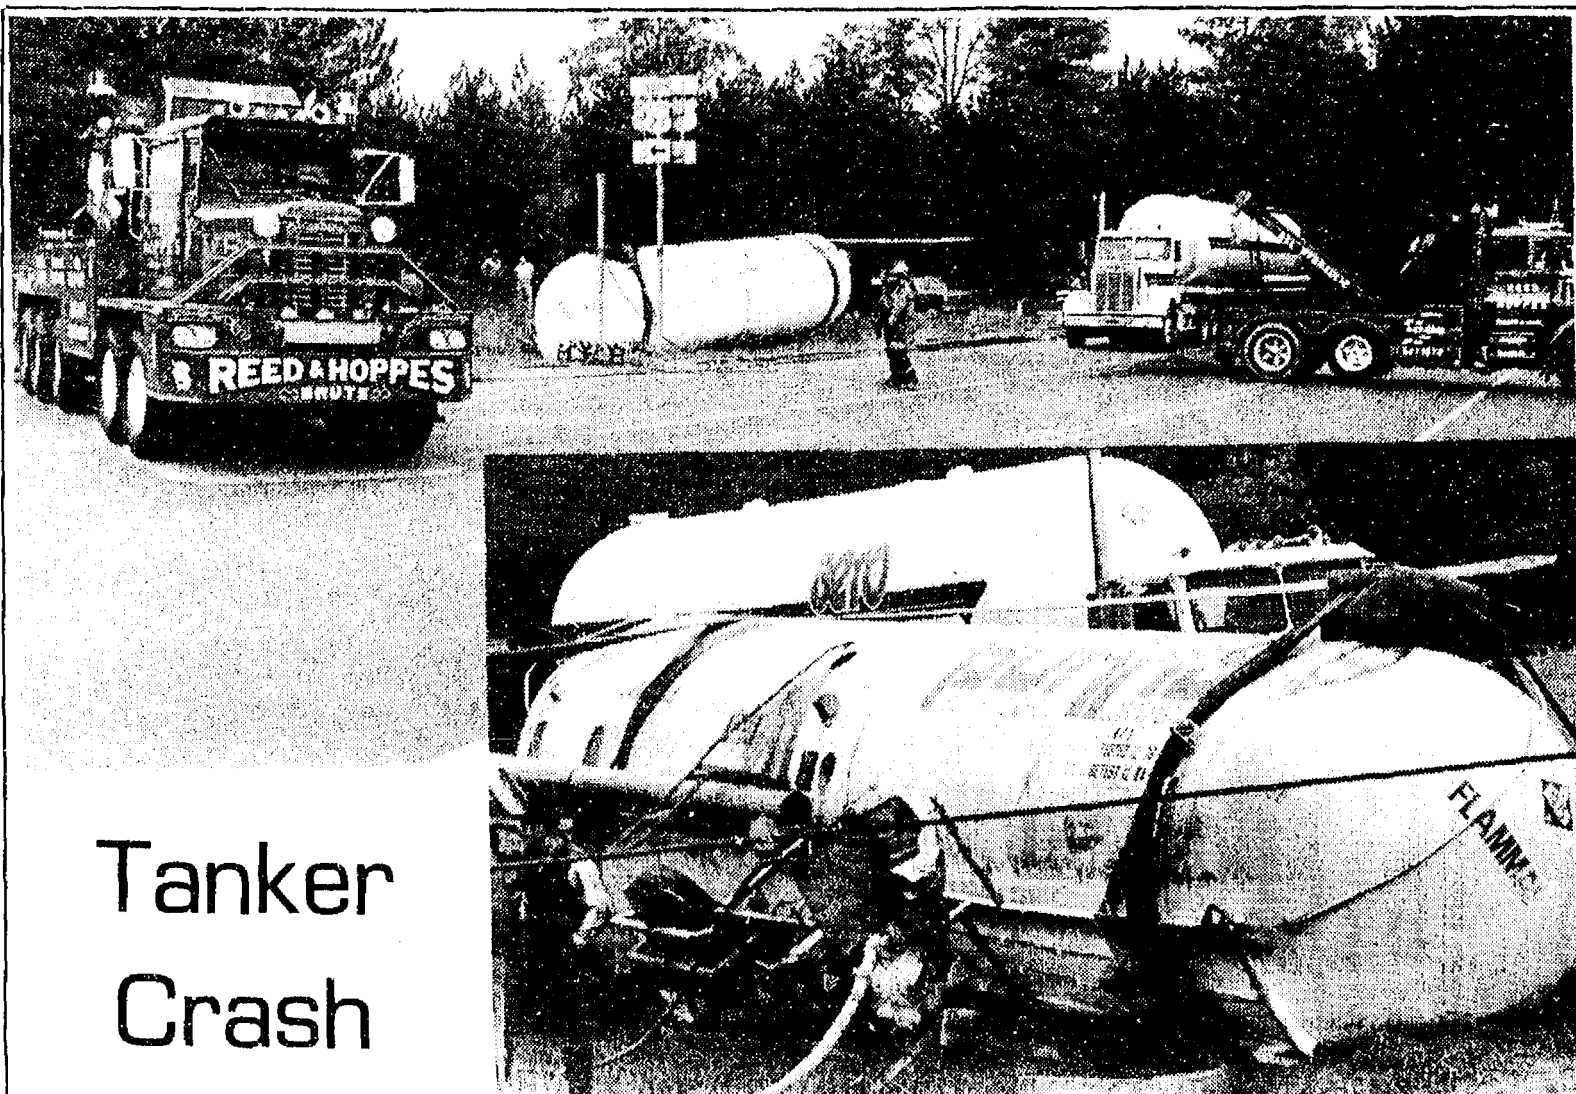

The tank lost pressure from the rupture, so the first step for the hazardous material team was to restore pressure. Reed and Hoppes Company wreckers helped reposition the tanker and a big patch was placed over the rupture (see photo).

Pressure was pumped back into the tanker and then the liquefied gas was slowly pumped to another tanker.

The entire operation took until about 3 p.m. Friday. U.S. 27 was closed part of the time. The exits and Military Road were closed during all of the operation.

The driver of the truck was not injured. Police said the truck was headed south on Military Road and apparently was not going too fast when the tank came loose on the sharp curve just before the U.S. 27 entrance.

Emergency services at the scene included the Beaver Creek Fire Department, Crawford County Sheriff Dept., Michigan State Police, Grayling City Police, Lyons Twp., Roscommon DNR, a state police fire marshal, and several private agencies. Many emergency personnel stayed at the scene the entire night and well into the next afternoon.

KCC Receives $80,000 Job Training Grant

Kirtland Community College has been awarded $80,000 in state job training and retraining grants for the 1985-86 school year.

The $80,000 in grants is for six different projects. An office for contracting with business and industry received a $20,000 grant. A local fund match of $12,000 will also fund the office.

Automated manufacturing equipment will be purchased with a grant for $19,888. A local match of $24,888 will also purchase equipment.

A small business incubator project will receive a $16,000 grant and $21,000 in local funds will be provided.

Equipment will be purchased to expand the manufacturing process technician and welding technician curriculums with a grant for $11,112. Local matching funds of $11,112 will also be used to purchase equipment.

The graphic design program will be expanded with a $9,000 grant. Local funds of $38,100 will also be used.

A $4,000 grant will fund a corporate services bureau and $6,000 in local funds will be used.

This is the fourth year Kirtland has received state grants for special economic development and job training or retraining programs.

In 1984-85, KCC received $81,000 in state grants: A grant of $19,000 was used to acquire the industrial trainer and related technical measuring devices which train personnel in new electro-engineering technology principles. The college provided $8,000 in matching funds. A grant for $54,000 was used to acquire computer-aided instructional equipment. A in-kind college match of $2,400 was made along with a $50,000 Kellogg Foundation grant. A grant for $8,000 was used to acquire equipment for automotive technology curriculum. A $8,000 college match was given.

In 1983-84, a total of $87,050 was received. The aviation maintenance ($19,560) and the electro-technology programs ($62,490) received equipment and curriculum modification. A grant for $5000 was used to

Residents Turning Cold Shoulder To Animals

LOOKING FOR HELP — This English setter is one of several animals that are available for adoption at the animal shelter.

By Jon Thompson

Some of them whimper or whine and paw the side of their cages. Others bark out loudly. A few start to meow.

Their actions vary, but every puppy, kitten, dog, and cat at the Crawford County Animal Control Shelter has the same look in their eyes. Their eyes are begging. Begging intensely for help.

They don't want to be at the Animal Shelter, especially on Thursday. That's Euthanasia Day.

In 1984, seven hundred and sixty one dogs, cats, puppies, and kittens were killed during Euthanasia Day in Crawford County.

After being picked up, dogs or cats usually are kept seven to thirteen days before they are put to death. The county doesn't have room or money to keep them a long time.

Marjorie Mathew, animal control officer, will often try to hold on to puppies longer to give them a better chance to be picked up by someone.

But people in Crawford County aren't picking up as many animals from the shelter as a few years ago.

In 1981, 1,107 animals were taken to the shelter and 562 — more than 50 percent — were picked up by county residents and taken home.

In 1984, the same number of animals were taken to the shelter (1,107) but only 346 — about 31 percent — were picked up and taken home by county residents.

Cats and kittens seldom are taken home from the shelter. Cat owners usually don't think their pet could have been picked up and taken to the shelter.

County animal control officers urge all pet owners to call animal control first or visit the shelter. If your pet isn't there, the animal control officers can look out for them. And if you do lose a pet, the shelter has all kinds of puppies, kittens, dogs, and cats begging for a home.

Call the animal control officer through the sheriff dept. number 348-6341. The shelter, located just west of the Eagles Club on M-72 East, is open 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. It is closed Thursday.

From Our Corner...

We have to apologize for the absence of our column this week...

Our plans were to come down to visit our Buckeye family for a long weekend from Wednesday to Sunday...

Our other plan was to write our column down here, so it would be finished when we arrived home Sunday...

Friday morning turned our plans upside down...Thelma joined Toni as she walked T.J. and Stefany over to their school...they got about 3 houses away when Thelma fell...

We took her to Toni's doctor's office for x-rays which showed five fractures in her left wrist...an Orthopedic surgeon was called in to set the wrist...

Doctor Hritz, recommended, seeing as we had so far to get home he wanted to check her at the Lorain Hospital Monday morning because of the severity of the break...he said, it was like a splinter...and he didn't know at the time if he would have to put a plate in...

With that trauma, it took our thoughts away to even get something together to mail Friday night in hopes it would arrive by Tuesday morning...

So, with a wonderful invention of Alexander Bell, we bring you the reason this turkey is not stuffed to the limit...

With that we bid T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight...and to all, have a nice weekend, we are hoping to be home by Tuesday night before you read this...

Stephan's Wood Products plant in Grayling has added a 7,200 square foot addition. It will provide a new office, rest rooms, shipping and receiving departments and storage space. The business was started by Alva Stephan in 1946 and about 12 years ago, the original plant containing 2,880 square feet was constructed. Six years ago an addition was made to give an overall square footage of 5,200. This new addition will raise the size of the plant to 12,400 square feet. Mr. Stephan stated that large orders for picture frame moulding, which is but one of many wooden items that they manufacture, was the main reason for the plant expansion. High hopes are also held for the financial health of the company. The best year for Stephan's so far was in the neighborhood of $80,000. Sights are set for 1963 of a $200,000 year. Attention to detail and a constant working for improvement and refinement has brought this local business on the upward trail and will provide employment for a goodly number of local people.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Joseph and family spent Saturday and Sunday at Eaton Rapids visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Huntington, and while there Mr. Joseph and son Bill did some pheasant hunting. The old telephone directory is now obsolete, and in its place there is a new director with every number changed. The new dial phone system went into operation at 9 o'clock this morning. There will be no telephone girl to answer "number please" and you will have to do your own calling.

A whole page of newspaper dumped into one big "pie" isn't the kind of pie one enjoys. That's what we had for refreshment last Thursday afternoon. After printing about 50 copies on the last run of forms for last week's edition, the press was stopped for making a slight correction. Then the pressman forgot to lock the form in the press with the result when the press started rolling the loose page shot off the end of the press bed onto the floor. The form was completely pied and type, cuts, linotype slugs, rules and everything were piled into one big heap. No two letters or lines remained together. There were ready to finish printing the edition so that the papers would reach our readers in due time. There was only one thing to do and that was to start in and reset the entire page - the local page - make it up again and get it back onto the press. It was a big job for that time of day but by 8 o'clock that night it was ready for printing. Only once before in our newspaper experience have we had such a catastrophe.

Mrs. Aubrey Blaine was guest of honor at a lovely shower Wednesday afternoon, that was held at the home of Mrs. William Blaine.

Miss Orpha White of St. Ignace spent last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McDonnell.

Mrs. Bee Duncun and Mrs. A. Schneider of Petoskey spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dan Babbitt.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

THE CHRISTIAN ANSWER TO COMMUNISM

Please compare and contrast the following Christian values from the Bible with communist values from the Communist Manifesto.

ON HISTORY

"I praised and honored Him that liveth forever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion; and His kingdom is from generation to generation." (Daniel 4:34).

"The history of all...existing society is the history of class struggles." (Communist Manifesto p. 57).

ON PRIVATE PROPERTY
"Thou shalt not steal" (Exodus 20:15).

"In this sense, the theory of Communism may be summed up in the single phrase: Abolition of private property." (Communist Manifesto p. 82).

ON FAMILY

"Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." (Hebrews 13:4).

"Abolition of the family! Even the most radical flare up at this infamous proposal of the Communist." (Communist Manifesto p. 87).

ON EDUCATION

"And thou shalt teach them (the laws of God) diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk to them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." (Deuteronomy 6:7).

"But you will say, we destroy the most hallowed of relations, when we replace home education by social." (Communist Manifesto p. 88).

ON RELIGION

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work in judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil." (Ecclesiastes 12:13, 14).

"But Communism abolishes eternal truths, it abolishes all religion, and all morality..." (Communist Manifesto p. 92).

ON REVOLUTION

"Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God." (Romans 13:1).

"In short, the Communist everywhere support every revolutionary movement against the existing social and political order of things." (Communist Manifesto p. 116).

ON WORLD CONQUEST

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Matthew 28:19, 20).

"The Communist disdain to conceal their views and aims. They openly declare that their ends can be attained only by the forcible overthrow of all existing social conditions. Let the ruling classes tremble at a Communist revolution. The proletarians have nothing to lose but their chains. They have a world to win." (Communist Manifesto p. 116). Vikings Beat Petoskey 53-50 In Double OT

Grayling started the second half of league play with a double-overtime 53-50 victory over Petoskey on the road Thursday.

The Vikings outlasted Petoskey despite having four players foul out. Grayling had 30 fouls for the night and Petoskey had 22 called in the foul-dominated contest.

"It was a good win for us," said Viking coach Tom Mills. "Everyone on the team contributed to the victory. We stuck together and played good defense."

Grayling's defense stopped Petoskey without a shot in the last four seconds when Petoskey had a chance to win in regulation.

Grayling defense also held together in the overtime periods even though guard Michelle Moore was the tallest player left for Grayling on the floor.

Grayling led 14-11, 23-17, and 38-28 after the three quarter marks.

Moore led Grayling with 11 points, Kim Springer had 9, Dena Thayer 9, Shawn Denton 6, Michelle Trudeau 6, Stacey Hinds 6, Katherine Kraus 4, and Jennifer Ojala 2.

Grayling and Petoskey were tied 43-43 after regulation and 46-46 after one overtime.

Petoskey had defeated Grayling 52-42 during the first round of league play at Grayling.

Against Rogers City last Tuesday, Grayling was defeated 54-45.

"We played well. I was pleased with our effort. We just ran into a good ball club," said Mills.

Rogers City has the top two league scorers and they scored 21 and 14 points against Grayling.

Moore scored 22 for Grayling, Denton had 9, Springer 8, Thayer 4, Ojala 2, and Hinds 1. Grayling will have a re-match with Rogers City Nov. 8th at home.

Grayling Blasts Boyne 26-0 For 1st Victory

Grayling used two big touchdown plays to break open the game and the defense shut down Boyne most of the night in a 26-0 win Friday.

Boyne received the opening kick-off and drove to the Grayling 26. The Vikings stopped them on a fourth and four yards there. It was the farthest Boyne advanced the ball all night.

Immediately after stopping Boyne, Grayling moved the ball. They ran three times for a first down and then struck quickly. Todd Klinger hit George Duncan for a 56-yard scoring pass. Kevin Hudson added the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Grayling stopped Boyne after the kick-off, and this time running back Tom Miller broke a 63-yard scoring run. The extra-point kick was blocked for a 13-0 lead.

With 30 seconds left in the half, Klinger again connected for a touchdown pass to Jason McEvers for six yards. The kick was blocked again.

Grayling added a touchdown in the last quarter on a one-yard run by Jeff Wolcott. Hudson added the extra-point kick for the 26-0 score.

"It was good victory for us. Everyone played," said coach Bill Klinger. "The key to the win was the blocking of the offensive line. We had our best game rushing and we were able to mix the run and pass."

Miller gained 153 yards on only 15 tries. Wolcott gained 84 yards on 12 attempts. Klinger was 6 for 16 through the air with one interception and gained 125 yards for the night. Duncan caught two for 85 yards, Casler one for 16, Wolcott one for 5, McEvers one for 6, and Brooks one for 13.

The offensive line was led by Bubba Neilson, Flaskie Robins, Hudson, Don Brooks, McEvers, Ricky Sprague, and Jim Laurent.

On defense, Hudson, Sprague, Laurent, and Brooks each had 10 tackles. Wolcott had 9 tackles and Casler had one interception.

The J.V. team also stomped Boyne 32-13. Paul Anteau opened the scoring with a 70-yard touchdown on the opening kick-off. Pat Nunn added the extra-point kick.

Chris Skidmore threw a 60-yard pass to Craig Hudson for the next score. Nunn's kick was blocked.

In the second quarter, Kevin Kamph ran four yards for a touchdown to give Grayling a 19-0 lead. The kick was blocked. Anteau added a 30-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Nunn kicked one through for a 26-0 lead. Boyne then ran one back on the kick-off and passed for two points to make it 26-8 at halftime.

Anteau scored another touchdown on a 45-yard run in the third quarter. The kick was blocked. David Stephan recovered a fumble for Grayling but Boyne scored the last touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Non-smokers Rejoicing

by Richard Millman

A LITTLE of this...a little of that...and some closing quotes.

Good news for non-smokers — at least in Florida.

Effective October 1 Florida's Clean Indoor Air Act bans smoking in all indoor public places unless authorities take steps to create exemptions, and requires employers to develop and post a policy on smoking in the work place.

Smoking is banned, with some minor exceptions, in all government buildings, restaurants seating more than 50 people, hospitals, nursing homes, theaters, museums, grocery and retail stores, mass transit and a bunch of other places.

The non-smoking law may spread to other states. In Michigan, it made news a while back when the Ann Arbor News outlawed smoking in all work areas in the newspaper plant. Other work places may follow the trend.

It has never made sense to me, for example, that cigarettes are sold in hospitals, but they are. In some places, cigarettes are among items on merchandise carts pushed from room to room for patients' convenience. That's a bad idea.

So, good for Florida. Now, if Florida only could do something about all the bottles and cans which line its streets and roads...

TURMOIL DOWN at Wayne State University about whether the editor of the school paper could properly ban advertising for the armed forces is a tempest in a teapot, in my opinion.

Editor Patricia Maceroni decided she didn't like United States military policies — especially in El Salvador and Nicaragua — so she ordered that no more ads could run in the student newspaper which sought to recruit for the armed forces.

The board which controls students publications got a little upset that Editor Maceroni was exercising too much power, so they called her on the carpet, and eventually fired her, and the story got several days of primary attention in the big city media.

Some critics jumped on the occasion to defend the First Amendment guarantee of freedom of the press, which needs some good defending on all too many occasions. However, this is really not one of them.

In my view, there is no question of censorship or abridging freedom of the press in this situation. Publishers routinely exercise judgement about what goes into the advertising columns as well as the news columns of newspapers. That's their responsibility.

The question at Wayne State is who's running the paper. In most cases of which I'm aware, the editor cannot dictate advertising content; either the advertising manager or the publisher has that job. Maybe at Wayne State it's different.

That's all that's involved here — who's running the store? The First Amendment is in no danger, so don't let the alarm-sounders get you all excited.

EVER WONDER why it's so tough to get certain laws passed, such as tax reform or farm legislation? Senator Robert Dole of Kansas gave a hint of the problems in his comment about farm bills:

"Farm bills satisfy everyone — except those who live in cities, those who live in small towns, and those who live in the country."

And that's one reason President Reagan is having so much trouble with his tax reform program. Everyone wants tax reform — but not if it will hurt. And it's bound to hurt somewhere.

SOME OTHER closing quotes:

A newspaper interviewer, doing a story about football game tailgate parties and other fan craziness, asked Brenda Jaffe of Farmington Hills about her husband's enthusiasm; she replied: "Where else can a conservative lawyer go and drink like a fish, dress like a clown, and have such a good time?"

Detroit Tiger manager Sparky Anderson, describing his baseball team's disappointing year after winning the world's championship in 1984: "It's like everything else...we go along from day to day and things start going bad, and now they go a little worse, and a little worse, and pretty soon you're into a snowball that just keeps rolling. Somewhere it has to get stopped."

Washington Times columnist Lawrence Wade, explaining his personal philosophical development over the years: "In the early '70's, I drove a cab. I was a far-left liberal who'd never made more than $5,000 a year. Then I finished college, and paying taxes pointed me toward the political right."

BOOSTER CLUB DONATES — Betty Worden, Grayling Youth Booster Club board member, gives a $250 check to Rose Duley, Crawford County librarian, to support the library's summer program for children. The summer library sessions attracted as many as 100 children in one day.

Bits by Fay

Jo and Mary Jane Jorgenson of Flint spent the week-end in the Grayling area.

Bill and Gloria Kraus were in Lansing a couple of week-ends ago to attend the Michigan State-Michigan game. They visited their son, Richard, in Lansing and were joined there by the rest of their family, Bill, Becky and Billy, Jr. of Detroit and Jim of Ionia.

Melvin Nunn was in Grand Rapids the latter part of last week where he was in attendance at the Michigan Elementary and Middle School Principals Conference at the Amway Plaza.

Carl and Rose Hatfield were in Mt. Pleasant for the weekend. They stayed with their friends, Robert and Dena Desormes and Carl and Rose participated in an Art Fair on Saturday.

Three couples, Dick and Jean Raab, Jim and Marie Wiltse, Tom and Marian Welsh, motored to the New England states for a two-week camping trip. They toured Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, spending much of the time at Bar Harbor and enjoying plenty of lobsters.

A good crowd attended both performances of the dinner-theatre at the Holiday Inn on Friday and Saturday night. The cast, Vicki Bedard, Renata Champion, Stephanie Hindmarsh and John Watkins did an excellent job with the comedy "Opal's Million Dollar Duck" ably produced by Howard Taylor. The dinner was excellent. It's a pleasure to have such congenial hosts as the Frasers and to enjoy the nice facilities they have.

Former Grayling residents, Marlene and Richard Lippard, have come back to Grayling to be closer to family and friends. They had lived in Florida for ten years and more recently had operated a resort on Manistee Lake for about a year and a half. They are temporarily staying with their daughter, Wendy and Mike Kucharek.

"Cookie" Ostrowski won the shoes in the "Shoes for 2" local prize at Olson's in the national shoes sweepstakes. The winners in the national sweepstakes will be announced around November 5th.

Senator Declares Balanced Budget is Political, Not Constitutional, Problem

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA

Resolving the issue of the national budget deficit is a political problem and not a constitutional one, U.S. Senator Nancy Kassebaum (R-Kansas) said during a recent visit to Lansing.

Responding to a previous call for a constitutional convention to write an amendment to the U.S. Constitution for a balanced federal budget, she said budgeting procedures in Congress could be easily twisted to get around the federal constitutional amendment and a constitutional convention probably could not be limited to just one issue, throwing open the possibility of significant changes in the constitution.

Instead of promoting a constitutional amendment, Congress should do a better job of explaining to the public what would be necessary to balance the budget, she said.

"We have a very important role to play in communicating with the public that there are no easy choices. It's very easy to vote for a constitutional amendment or convene a constitutional convention. It's much more difficult to really make a decision if you're going to raise taxes, cap cost of living adjustments or significantly reduce defense spending," she said.

Kassebaum disputed the idea that Michigan becoming the 33rd state to call for a convention — a convention is required when 34 states demand it — would put pressure on Congress to submit a balanced budget resolution to its own.

In 1983, an amendment resolution passed in the U.S. Senate but failed in the House, and another effort would be attempted this fall, she said.

But people are wrong to think that a constitutional amendment would actually force the federal government to balance its expenditures with its revenues, she added.

For example, the federal government could establish a capital outlay budget and move all spending on new weapons systems, military bases and other capital projects into that budget. The general budget would look balanced but money would still be borrowed to meet the overall expenditures, she said.

And she disagreed with the concept that a constitutional convention could be limited to simply a balanced budget amendment.

Even if the U.S. Supreme Court were to rule that a convention could be limited to a single issue, "I can see all kinds of other things coming to the fore" for which there would be single issue conventions, she said.

SUPPORT SHOWN FOR STATE DEPARTMENT ON TOURISM

Tourism and recreation directors from around the state have offered their support for legislation that would create a centralized state Department of Recreation Tourism and Culture.

The state Senate committee on Economic Development, Trade and Tourism was told at a recent public hearing that the state needs to boost the tourist industry, its second largest after auto manufacturing.

John F. Greenslit, of the Michigan Recreation and Park Association, said the 20th state department was long overdue. "We should put our money where our mouth is and concentrate on promoting our state," he said.

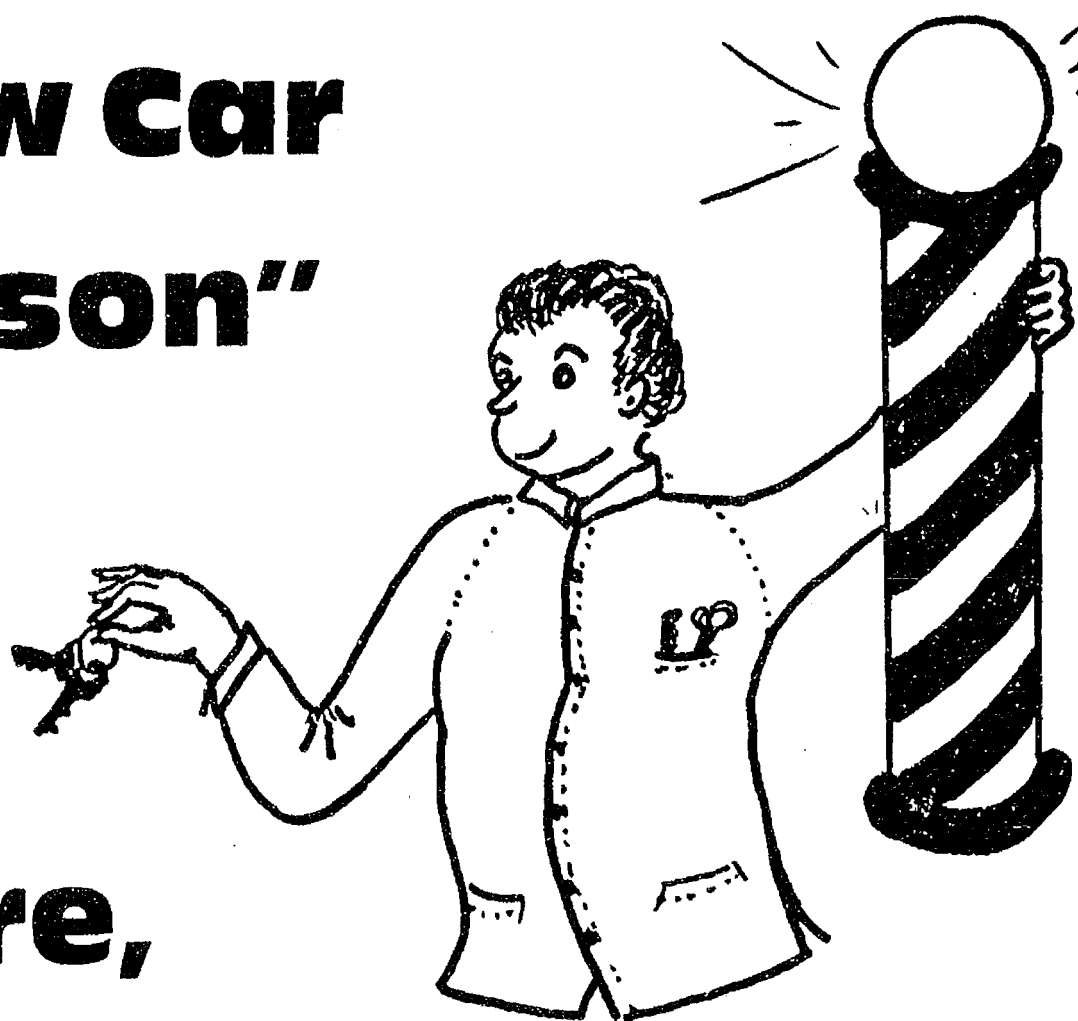

Kathy Lewand, of the Mackinac Island State Park Authority said the department could be a major benefit to the state's tourism industry, but expressed concern about how Mackinac Island Park would be affected. Although supporting the proposed department, she said that Mackinac Island Park should be handled uniquely.

The legislature is considering a nine bill package to create the 20th department and transfer the functions of various individual commissions to the department.

Medical Column

By Charles Vander Roest, D.O.

Drunk drivers kill. Alcohol use is a factor in the ten leading causes of premature death in the U.S. A recent poll conducted for TIME magazine showed that 67 percent of our nation's 170 million adults drink alcohol at one time or another. There are an estimated 3.4 million problem drinkers, aged 14-17, in this country.

Drunkness is a factor in 30-50 percent of all traffic fatalities, 45 percent of the fatal falls, and 50-70 percent of the homicides in the United States. Recently, attention has been directed at this enormous problem by TV and radio ads, major magazine coverage, and in medical journals. Also, recent court decisions holding bar owners responsible for actions of their patrons, and organizations such as MADD and AA are starting to reduce this country's drinking problem.

Ethyl alcohol, or ethanol, is the active ingredient in alcoholic beverages. It is classified as a general anesthetic in medical texts. Ethanol acts on the central nervous system (brain and spinal cord) as a depressant. It depresses higher brain functions including those that depend on experience or training. Memory, insight, and discrimination are dulled by its effects. Euphoria is common due to loss of inhibitory mechanisms. Alcohol also is a vasodilator.

Experts agree that physiologic changes (slowing) in reaction times occur with blood alcohol levels as low as 20-30 mg percent. The legal definition of drunk is 100 mg percent in most states.

Alcoholism is defined as the physical and psychological addiction to alcohol. In the last 20 years, national policy regards alcoholism as a disease. It may be the only disease people get voluntarily.

A 1982 study at the Medical College of Virginia had some revealing findings. Of 56 drivers that had accidents and were injured severely enough to be hospitalized, all had blood alcohol levels above 0.15 percent. Fifty one of these drivers were felt to have caused the accident in the opinion of investigating police officers. Seventy-two percent of these drivers had previous moving violations, twenty-two percent were driving on a suspended license, 33% had previous reckless driving convictions, 36 percent had previous license suspensions and previous accidents, and 16 percent had previous convictions for driving under the influence of alcohol. Nineteen of the 56 drivers were convicted (of any charge) while 37 were either not charged or convicted. Thus, it appears that an injury requiring hospitalization tends to protect the culpable driver from punishment. It appears that a large number of these drivers will be repeat offenders and present future risks.

Our society is inconsistent in matters of substance abuse and addiction. We should be as intolerant of alcohol abuse and addiction as we are of street drugs and narcotics.

There appears to be many factors that protect drunk drivers from prosecution. Head injuries cast doubt on the driver's level of impairment even when blood alcohol levels confirm intoxication. The difficulty of preserving a chain of evidence in life-threatening situations, the tendency to not confront injured people about alcohol use, and under-reporting of alcohol related accidents all tend to protect drunk drivers. Driving under the influence of alcohol is one of the greatest public health and emergency medical hazards of our age.

There are several solutions. First, protect society by getting drunk drivers off the road. Make the smell of alcohol grounds for detaining a driver for alcohol testing. Second, test more drivers, more often and make an abnormal test grounds for arrest for driving under the influence of alcohol. A blood alcohol test should be mandatory in all cases of personal injury or death from vehicular accidents. Vigorous prosecution of offenders is in order. A lower legal limit for definition of drunk driving is in order. The AMA has endorsed establishing .05 percent as the legal limit for drunk driving, it has also reaffirmed its support of 21 as the legal drinking age. I support all of these measures.

Herbally Yours

The colors are beautiful, the air is crisp and brisk - if not sometimes wet - the kids are in school; and you are busy with Halloween. Thanksgiving is around the corner, and Christmas is fast behind it. Plans have to be made for parties, dinner guests, gifts to make and to buy, more preparations, and more... Mercy, Darlin! How are you going to get through it without growing irritable and feeling a little burdened? Not to worry, Mama can help a little.

Get out that stainless steel or enamel pot and put in it about two or three cups of water and set it to simmering. Add, oh, I would say about four to six whole cloves. You know, those things your mother used to make those aromatic pomadors at Christmas. Take out a whole cinnamon stick, small, or a teaspoon of cinnamon chips, or a half teaspoon of cinnamon powder, and think of those spicy days of your youth when you wanted to remain young forever. Next put in a bay leaf that puts to mind those spring days of fresh wind and warm sunshine. Put in a sprig of mint, or facsimilar thereof - got that word? the menthol fragrance will remind you of those cleansing summers when you idled in the grass and smelled the growth. Add a touch of Thyme for the pungent woods on a hot day.

Get out your favorite book, snuggle into your robe, and snap your fingers at the few dollars extra you had to spend for that special gift, and forget about the big fight at the supper table. It will blow over. And the next time you see that grouch behind the counter at the store, smile a big grin and say, "Loveya," then walk away. The expression on that grouch's face alone will be worth the effort.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Rock Crusher
by Corey Rock

Our class went to the rock crusher and we saw it crush rock. We got to collect pea stones and pudding stones too. The rock crusher had arms that sorted out different kinds of rock. Larry had to load the rock crusher with a front end loader. We found all kinds of fossils and Petoskey stones. We walked through the woods to see the rock crusher. It was nice of Jerry Millikin to let our class come to the rock crusher. The rock crusher made all kinds of noises before it got stuck.

We played on a lot of hills and rocks and dirt. We saw a truck dump dirt and rocks. We almost got a ride in the front end loader. My legs got tired. We stopped for a rest after we got off the piles of rock and we emptied our shoes.

A question frequently asked this time of year is what right does a hunter have to enter private property to retrieve a dead or wounded deer. The following is the first three paragraphs from an Attorney General's Opinion dated February 4, 1930:

"A wounded deer runs onto private property -- the hunter who so wounds a deer does not have a right to enter upon private property without permission from the landowner, and he would be subject to provisions of the...Trespass Act if he does so enter.

"A wounded deer runs onto private property and dies within sight of the hunter -- same rationale as above. The hunter is a trespasser if he enters without permission. "If the landowner, however, takes possession of the deer, he is in violation of the provision that prohibits possession without tagging, and if he places his own tag on the deer, he is in violation for tagging a deer he himself did not kill. Actually, the deer still belongs to the state."

The same answer applies today, 55 years later.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover

I recently overheard a comment from a visitor that the person did not like the fall season. That person went on to say that while everything was pretty for a time with the trees turning color, everything was dying. I suspect that many people feel that way, but closer examination of what is beyond the window in front of you reveals a great deal of optimism.

A close look will show various insect eggs that were laid sometime ago, but are timed to hatch when spring arrives. To be sure some of those insects will be bothersome to us, but all find a place in the overall picture.

Even the animals prepare for winter. Some migrate to areas where they can survive, some are able to survive here by taking advantage of nature's bounty. Look at the way the squirrels store nuts and pinecones. Plants continue to amaze me. Take a close look at a pine and you will find the buds are already set for an early start in the spring. A terminal bud is evident as are three or four lateral buds which will make a whorl to mark the beginning of the new growth year. The leaves may be gone from the maple in the back yard, but if you choose to look the buds for next summer's leaves are already there. Those buds contain a natural anti-freeze to protect them during the coming winter so that they may open on schedule in the spring. The bulbs of various flowers such as the Adder's tongue will be protected by a blanket of leaves dropped by the obliging trees.

Nature it seems is an eternal optimist. Even though life processes slow down, they don't stop entirely. Nature provides the coming season as a time of rest for much of which lives beyond your window. We do the same at some period each day and find that life still continues the next day.

The bride is the daughter of Walter and Grace Galvani. Dennis is the son of Albert Kuhn and the late Twila Kuhn, all of Grayling.

Felicia given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Taffeta, fashioned with a high neckline and off the shoulder yoke of English netting accented with hand clipped re-embroidered Alencon lace and Venice lace, and Juliette sleeves. The semi cathedral train was accented with a tierra headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white silk Roses, mini Carnations and Lilies.

Bridesmaid, Miss Kelly Ann Adams, friend of the bride and flower girl, Grace Mary Galvani, sister of the bride also wore identical lilac taffeta dresses and carried silk wild flowers. Ushers were Dougless Edwin Kuhn, brother of the groom and Gerald Francis Buchanan, brother of the bride. All wore white suits with lilac ruffled shirts accented with lavender bow ties and cummerbunds. Nicholas Bedard served as ring bearer and wore a white Tuxedo with tails, as did the groom and both fathers.

Mrs. Ellen Thompson played the traditional wedding songs.

A family dinner immediately following the ceremony was held at the Arrowhead Inn.

The brides mother wore a floor length blue gown, and wore a corsage of white Roses, mini Carnations and Baby's Breath.

Out of town guests were from Warren, East Detroit and Lansing.

Both the bride and groom graduated from Grayling High School and Kirtland Community College. The couple are presently making their home in Grayling.

Report From The Band Boosters

The Grayling Viking Marching Band was a hit at the Homecoming Parade and Football Game. Thirty-three of the thirty-six band members participated along with the five "flags". The band marched proudly down Michigan Ave. to the football field where they played pregame the National Anthem and the school song. At half-time, the band was welcomed to the field. Drum Major, Stephanie Hindmarsh, directed the performance of Advance of the Roman Soldiers and "Go For It!"

Director, Dennis Ormsbee, has received many favorable comments from the community. We feel the band has made tremendous progress in the past six weeks. Hopefully, each person who enjoyed the music will let the band members know they are appreciated, and will encourage them to march in the summer parades.

The next football performance will be on Friday, October 25th, at the Viking varsity game vs. Charlevoix on the home field at 7:30 p.m. See you there!

Workshops Offered

Great Lakes Water Diversion, pesticide management and health care cost containment are topics for the League of Women Voters sponsored workshops scheduled for Tuesday evening, Oct. 29 at the Grayling Holiday Inn.

The sponsoring organization, the League of Women Voters of Michigan, is a non-partisan organization of men and women chiefly interested in promoting citizen participation in government. Known best for their voter service in the form of candidate debates, including the presidential debates, published voter guides, and registering voters, the LWV examines issues and encourages citizens to become involved in influencing public policy from informed positions.

The evening workshops will offer information on the status of Great Lakes water diversion, including the recently signed charter for Great Lakes management and the International Joint Commission Report on Great Lakes Water Diversion which has just recently been released after several years of study.

LWV Water Quality Director, Carol Swinehart of Bay City, commented on the potential of the water diversion issue to effect regional politics, "With different needs, different regions of the country may well be pitted against each other in the future over the use of our Great Lakes water resources. Judgements will be made which will bear on all of us and this study will provide us with a basis for informed action."

Pesticide management is an issue that is slowly gaining national attention and will also be offered as a workshop, along with another on health care cost containment methods.

Nancy White, president of the LWV of Michigan, will be in Grayling for the workshops and encouraged residents of the area to attend. "With one exception, all of the inquiries the LWV had received in recent years regarding our program, and initiating new local units, have come from the northern part of the lower peninsula. We are eager to bring these workshop opportunities to Grayling and invite area residents to attend."

The Grayling Holiday Inn will be the site of the workshops, which will be held from 5:30 - 9:00 p.m. on Oct. 29. A box supper will be available. To register or obtain further information, call 1-800-292-5823.

Plan and Practice Emergency Escapes

If fire strikes your home, will your family escape? A basic home fire drill plan, if practiced and taken seriously can help save the lives of your family. The Grayling City & Township Fire Dept. list the following steps in a good evacuation program:

- Plan two ways out of each room, especially the bedrooms. In most cases the window is the second planned exit.
- If awakened by your smoke detector, quickly leave the house by the safest route. Don't stop to dress or gather valuables.
- Select an outside meeting place well away from the house where everyone is to gather so a head count can be made. Remember the rule "once out stay out!"
- Call the fire department from a place outside the place on fire.

RSVP Reports

This week we would like to thank two very special volunteers. Barney Engel has graciously donated a beautiful handmade jewelry box to RSVP, for a drawing.

Tickets are available at the RSVP office 3 for $1.00 or 50 cents a piece. The other volunteer is Marge Oliver, who has donated a lovely quilt top to be quilted by RSVP volunteers from Roscommon County. Thank you Barney and Marge for your very generous donations.

This week we have lots of requests for volunteers:

1. Clerical receptionist to work in the Community School office - this would just be to answer phones and general office work - the hours would be very flexible.

2. A man or woman or both to chaperone the Middle School students at the Halloween Party - this would be only for a couple of hours.

3. A person to help out in the Frederic Library.

4. More persons willing to drive people either out of town or in town to doctor's appointments.

Stephan-Fenton Speak Vows

Tressa Stephan and Elmer Fenton were united in marriage on Saturday, September 21, 1985, at two o'clock in the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints. Jay Doty officiated at the double ring ceremony. Joydice Haas of Dade City, Florida sang the "Lord's Prayer" and the floral decorations were gifts from friends. Jenny Annis was pianist.

Tressa was escorted to the altar by her son, John Stephan of Alaska. Roy Wedge, Jr. served as best man and Pat Fowler was matron of honor. Guests were members of the immediate family and the reception following was hosted by the groom's daughters, Nancy McLachlan, Donna Wedge of Jackson and Carol Crouch of Saginaw. Carol was unable to attend.

Guests were from Lansing, Charlotte, Traverse City, Jackson, Florida; Kalkaska and Alaska.

Magistrate

Appearing before Magistrate Irene Wyman last week were the following:

Maurice Alma, Timothy Gabriel, Gary Cassidy, and Douglas Sajdak of Frederic, were all charged with "Illegal Possession of a Deer". They were assessed fine and costs of $208.00 and $25.00 restitution each and five days in the Crawford County Jail. They also shall not secure a deer or bear hunting license for the remainder of the year of conviction nor during the next three succeeding years. Billie Wade Jr. of Dearborn, was charged with "Fishing without a License". He was assessed fine and costs of $43.00.

Receives Drivers Badge Award

Sgt. Charles H. Denton III, son of Charles & Bernadine Denton of Grayling was awarded the Drivers Badge from Oct. 19, 1982 - 24 of Aug. 1985 for driving over 12 consecutive accident free months while stationed at 663 ORC Co. in Grafenwoehr, Germany.

AARP Seeks Medical Reform

The American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) today called on the Michigan State Legislature to enact legislation to reduce the incidence of medical malpractice and to strengthen the licensing and review procedures for physicians.

"Even though AARP is skeptical about the so-called medical malpractice 'crisis' in Michigan, we oppose any measures that limit access or slow the due process of those who have been medically injured. Rather, our State Legislative Committee will seek legislation that combines effective physician licensing and review with meaningful, but not restrictive, tort reform," said Wilbur Myers, Chairman of AARP's State Legislative Committee (SLC) in Michigan.

AARP's comments came in response to a Senate Select Committee Report on medical malpractice. The report recommended a number of restrictive malpractice suit measures that AARP opposes, such as a pre-trial screening panel, limitation of amounts of losses to $600,000, and restrictions on the choice of expert witnesses.

SLC Chairman Myers, a resident of Lansing, noted that "the Senate Committee Report does, however, contain significant reforms of licensing and review of physicians. AARP endorses the Committee's action in these areas."

Pastoral Care Week Underway

The Pastoral Care Department of Mercy Hospital, Grayling, join with pastoral workers all over the United States in celebrating Pastoral Care Week, October 20 - October 26. The week-long recognition is being sponsored by the National Association of Catholic Chaplains.

The Pastoral Care Dept. staff at Mercy Hospital is comprised of Sister Mary Generose Kubesh, RSM, and Sister Mary Patrice Sinnott, RSM. The two sisters provide 24-hour coverage for patients and family at the hospital.

Last year over 3,000 patients were admitted to Mercy Hospital and over 10,000 outpatients were seen in the emergency room. The Pastoral Care staff visit every new patient within 24-hours of their admission and provide spiritual guidance for family members who have brought loved ones to the hospital.

Additionally, pastoral care staffs committees in the hospital, contacts clergy of other faiths for patients, make themselves available to employees of the hospital who seek guidance and provide educational programs to community groups and individuals. As a part of the local Ministerial Association, they both are active in community projects as well.

The care of the sick and injured is not confined to the healing of the physical body, the spiritual needs of the patient is also often in need of attention. At Mercy Hospital it is the ministry of the Pastoral Care Department to contribute to the spiritual, as well as the physical needs of all patients and their families.

Stop Smoking! Lose Weight! Hypnosis Seminars at Grayling High School

Are you literally allowing years of your life to go up in smoke? Or enjoying life less than you could with a smaller, healthier body? If so, do yourself a favor — stop smoking or lose weight! You can do either easier than you can imagine with hypnosis as your helper.

That's the word from Jim Hoke, author and behavior counselor who has specialized in hypnosis for 14 years. The Grayling Community Education Program will offer seminars designed by him on Monday, October 28 at Grayling High School. A stop smoking seminar at 6:00 p.m. and a weight control seminar at 8:30 p.m. will be conducted by Jeff Hobson, who was personally trained by Hoke. Because the $30 fee is refundable halfway through the seminar, participants have nothing to lose but bad habits. Registrations for the class are presently being accepted at the Community School Office. Registration for these seminars must be completed by October 21. For more information call your Community School Office at 348-7641.

An ongoing survey proves that four out of five smokers who complete the Self Psych program become non-smokers, and weight loss clients have lost as high as 259 pounds.

Hoke is president of Self Psych Inc., which has offered these same seminars for American Lung Association affiliates in 74 cities in 11 states, the Texas Public Health Association in 15 cities, the National Kidney Foundation of Louisiana in seven cities, and community education programs in more than 100 Michigan cities.

"Thank you"

"Thank you for picking up your toys." "Thank you for remembering to get bread." "Thank you for putting gas in the car."

Small routine matters? No! Because when a "thank you" is said, it provides a link of love for the persons involved.

We must work on these "small links of love" in order to make life happier for those around us.

The personal "thank you" also reminds us that a thank you to God is also in order. We do not have to stop and close our eyes and bow our heads each time. Our prayers can be flashes of thoughts as we acknowledge God's love and presence.

Each "thank you" can be a "link of love" to God and others as we pray at home, or at our house of worship.

Lovells News

by Ruth Caldwell

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Armstrong attended a hardware convention in Indiana this week.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leosler helped them celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary at an open house on Saturday evening. About 50 relatives and friends gathered to extend their best wishes. Following a delicious supper, the couple opened many lovely and useful gifts. Out of town guests were from the Detroit area, Gaylord, and Grayling.

Our sympathies are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coulter on the death of his mother who passed away on Sunday in Lapeer.

Rudy Pearsall and Todd Harwood enjoyed a camping trip in the upper.

Mr. Samuel Darcey and daughter Darlene Davis spent the past week visiting his sister, Betty Van Luhn in Denver, Colo. who is hospitalized.

Anyone wishing a 1986 community calendar, please call 348-9495 or 348-9777.

Does American Red Cross Deserve Your Financial Support?

One of the results of American Red Cross action to mitigate the suffering of humans hurt by Disaster as mandated by the Congress of the U.S. was the development of the procedures that permit drawing blood from healthy human beings, storing it, and redistributing it to Hospitals and Medical Centers for use in saving human lives during surgery and illness.

Virtually millions of people all over the world are alive and healthy today because of this remarkable technological achievement. Prior to the successful development of these techniques blood could only be directly transferred from one individual to another by transfusion, and then, only whole blood.

Today all types of blood, from the common A+ and O+ to the comparatively rare A-, B+ and C-; to the very rare AB+, B- and the extremely rare AB- (only one out of 200 persons have AB- blood) can be stored for many weeks, and, in the case of extremely rare types, can be frozen for years with perfect usability when unfrozen.

In the past years if an AB-individual had to have open heart surgery it might take weeks to get enough AB-blood to undertake the operation, but today all such rare blood is frozen and there is a sufficient bank to assure prompt implementation of such needed open heart surgery or in the case of emergency surgery because of an accident.

Crawford County is blessed with a core of 659 active Wonderful Blood Donors who annually give more than 600 pints of their precious blood to help their fellow citizens stay alive and healthy. Enough so that every citizen of Crawford County - no matter where he or she may be in the U.S. when it is needed - can be assured of obtaining his or her blood requirements without replacement.

American Red Cross maintains and operates Blood Service Regions throughout the U.S. that conduct Blood Banks; draw blood from Donors giving their precious blood without recompense; process the blood into the needed variety of blood products; store it; and redistribute it to Hospitals and Medical Centers for patients use.

All Red Cross blood is given freely by Donors and the blood itself is given to patients without charge.

The cost of operating the Blood Service regions, holding the blood banks, processing, storing and redistributing the blood, and the Hospital's costs for storing and handling such blood, must be recovered and the patient is charged for those costs.

The charge per pint or unit varies from one Red Cross Blood Region to another as each Region's cost are peculiar to that Region's facilities; BUT, there is NO CHARGE for the blood itself as it is given freely by Donors.

If you think the Red Cross Blood Program is worthwhile - and it is hard to believe that anyone would want to be without it - will you help assure its continued successful operation by sending a contribution to the Crawford County Chapter/American Red Cross today at RR#2, Box 2515, Grayling 49738?

LISMAN HONORED — Mrs. Nancy Lisman presents Terry Wright, Grayling Chamber of Commerce Director, with an American flag in honor of her late husband John Lisman. Jack Alef, Grayling State Bank president, organized an effort through the Grayling business community to donate a new flag pole, rope, cement foundation, and plaque for the front of the chamber building.

Correction

A $3000 check to the United Way campaign presented by Diana Stubbe at the Kick-off Breakfast was from the Weyerhaeuser Foundation, not from Weyerhaeuser mill employees. Weyerhaeuser is the pace-setter for the 1986 United Way campaign in Crawford County.

We are the World, We are the Women

Sister Maureen Malane, RSM, will be presenting "We Are the World, We Are the Women" in the Riverside Room of Mercy Hospital on Sunday, November 10, 1985 at 4:00 p.m. Sister Maureen's presentation will highlight her attendance at the United Nations Conference Ending a Decade on Women which took place July 15 through 26, 1985, in Nairobi, Kenya, where 15,000 women from around the world attended. Anyone interested in hearing Sister Maureen's presentation is invited to attend on November 10.
